Rules of YES

I respect myself and others by always being on time.

I respect the time schedule and I arrive five minutes early.

I am ready for work.

I speak of peace, love, and respect.

Violating people and things is not acceptable.

Saying “Please” and “Thank you” does not hurt anyone.

In Slovene: Prosim and Hvala.

I respect the space and belongings of others.

I participate, I contribute, I share, I support, I solve.

If I borrow something, I return it to the place where I found it.

The room I entered was clean and things were in order. By cleaning up after myself, I ensure that others can enjoy the same genuine sense of time and space.

Pianos do not eat or drink – in fact, they hate food! They only love music scores, pencils, crayons, erasers, and a loud metronome.

Victor Borge isn't here, so singers, now is your chance to place your hands on the piano.

If something goes wrong, I'll notify Marko, Nejc, Juliette, or Eleni.
